

First Officer Nigel Chew

First Officer Nigel Chew works for Singapore Airlines and has been with the company for over 9 years. He flies the A330-300 after spending 5 years on the B777. Nigel currently serves as the Honorary Secretary of ALPA-S.

Nigel Chew served in the Singapore military for 2 years as a Signal Officer in the Air Defence Battalion. He moved to New Zealand in 2005 to pursue his flying and studies in Aviation at Massey University. He earned a Bachelor of Aviation in 2008, and a Post Graduate Diploma in Aviation in 2012.

FO Chew has been involved with ASAP since 2015 and currently has the privilege to be involved with the ASAP SPG. It is from this platform that he sees the need to strive for change in the Asian Aviation Market and to learn from those who have paved the way before him.
